

Course Overview

This is a short course of learning brought to you by the State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education, serving arts education across the nation through our members.

This workshop will demonstrate the ways in which the interactive website home provides an orientation to the new arts standards structure and philosophy and serves as a resource for utilizing the standards to support teaching and learning in the arts.

Course Features:

Participants will...

- Understand the navigational features of the interactive arts standards website.
- Learn to access and use the array of website features and materials offered to support their use of the voluntary 2014 Arts standards.

Session 1 – Introduction to Workshop Overview and Objectives

- Identifying the web address to access the 2014 arts standards in Dance, Media Arts, Music, Theatre, and Visual Arts
- Identifying the organizations responsible for the writing of the standards

Session 2 – Diving into the Website

- Explore the website and the components of the national arts standards
- Identify how to access the components of the arts standards through the website

Session 3 – Putting it all Together

- Understand and apply the interactive features and resources of the 2014 Arts Standards website to your own practice

Session 4 – Course Wrap-Up and Certificate

- Conclusion to the course

Throughout the course, opportunities are provided for you to connect your learning across sessions and to explicitly consider the implications of your learning for your classroom practice. You will also be able to revisit your work and reflections by viewing your individual Course Portfolios.
